Stress Can Kill You! Six Things You Can Do.

The CNN World Business report of February 3, 2005 carried this title "Monday morning bad for your health." It revealed that more people suffer a heart attack on Monday than on any other day of the week!

Why? Going back to work, or again facing that boss, or dealing with the Monday morning traffic can raise stress levels! And stress can kill you!

1. First of all, what is stress?

Stress s the body's physical, mental and emotional response to the demands of life. Fach of these demands is called a stressor

2. How does the body respond to a stressor? Choose the right words: adrenaline, normal, pressure.

(a)	Whenever a threat is perceived, the body releases
(b)	The heart pounds faster, muscles tighten, blood	rises

(c) When the threat disappears, the body relaxes and returns to

3. Stress is helpful. We need it to face emergencies. But continual stress is harmful! It can kill you!

Prolonged periods of stress can cause heart disease, stroke, diabetes, high cholesterol, ulcers, hypertension, colitis, obesity, and even cancer.

4. Strat	egy # 1 to manage stress: Use Whole Body Therapy. What's that?
1 Corint	hians 9:27. "I discipline my body and bring it into subjection."
TOFO	1. If I strengthen my whole body, I can better withstand stress.
T D F D	2. This requires a nutritious diet, regular exercise, adequate sleep.
T O F O	3. Whole Body Therapy says, "If it feels good to the body, do it!"
TOFO	4. This therapy leads us to avoid tobacco, alcohol, and caffeine.
5. Strat	egy # 2: Take Charge of the Areas of Life You Can Control.
T D F D	1. Write up a "To Do" list at start of each month, week, and day.
T O F O	2. Limit your list of activities to what you can manage.
TOFO	3. Prioritize: Do the lighter tasks first, and the heavier ones later.
TOFO	4. Have an appointment? Start out early. Less haste, Less stress!
6 Strat	egy # 3: Engage in Relaxing Activities. What did Saul use?
	el 16:23. He used
Other re	laxing activities are: take a walk, work in a garden, breathe deeply.
	s practice. Let's breathe from the diaphragm.
7. Strat	egy # 4: Do Cognitive Restructuring. Use Positive Self Talk!
	s 17:22. "A merry heart does good, like medicine."
• If I sa	y negative things to myself, I will have more stress.
• If I say	y positive things to myself, I will have less stress.

9. Strate	egy # 5: Communicate Wisely with Your Stressor.
When ta	Iking, avoid "You" statements. Instead, use "I" statements.
Example	e # 1: Instead of "You didn't tell me you wanted the agenda first!"
She cou	She could say, "Sir, I didn't realize that the agenda was needed first."

Example # 2: Instead of "You never help with the dishes," what can I say?

10. Strategy # 6: Practice God-centered
Meditation. How to do that?

16. Secret # 5: It's Christ's favorite day to relieve stress! 40% of His miracles were done on the Sabbath! Let's look at some of them!

- Paralyzed for 38 years, the man stood up and walked! (John 5:1-15).
- Bent over for 18 years, the woman walked straight! (Luke 13:10-17).
- Blind from birth, the man first saw on the Sabbath! (John 9:1-14.)

17. Secret # 6: The Sabbath will be kept through all eternity!

Isaiah 66:22, 23 tells us we will worship each Sabbath in the New Earth. When Jesus comes again, we'll have a new planet! Stress-free forever! And each Sabbath we will worship the Prince of Peace on His Day of Peace.
